

McRobert2

men [Sacco and Vanzetti] were elsewhere when the crimes were committed". However, 61 witnesses counterclaimed that the accused were seen and at where the crime occurred. Sacco and Vanzetti were convicted guilty and sentenced to 7 years in prison, and sentenced to the electric chair two year later. Elizabeth Proctor saying about Corey Giles and his convictionment," transformation

He was not hanged. He would not answer aye or nay to his indictment; for if he denied the charge they'd hang him surely, and auction out his property. So he stands mute, and died Christian under the law. And so his sons will have his farm. It is the law, for he could not be condemned a wizard without he answer the indictment, aye or nay.

The court did not have sufficient testimony to prosecute him in any way shape or form. Instead they tried to get the truth out of him by force, but in all means it ended horrible neither the cou